Charlotte N.C. 1974

INTRODUCTION
AND
GENERAL INDEX

HILL DIRECTORY COMPANY, publishers of Southeastern Directories, present to subscribers and the general public, this, the latest edition of the Charlotte City Directory. (In all, the HILL DIRECTORY COMPANY and its affiliated companies publish more than 1,400 City, County, State and National Directories).

Confidence in the growth of Charlotte's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the City Directory is a mirror truly reflecting Charlotte to the world.

The enviable position occupied by HILL'S Directories in the estimation of the public, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional people and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the Charlotte City Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the city.

Four Major Departments

The four major departments are arranged in the following order:—

I. THE BUYERS' GUIDE constitutes the first major department of the Directory, printed on yellow paper. In the first section of this department, grouped under appropriate headings, are included the advertisements and business cards of firms and individuals desiring to make a complete presentation of their products or services. Following this is the Classified Business Section, which embraces a list of the names and addresses of all business and professional concerns of the city, arranged in alphabetical order under appropriate headings—a catalog of all the activities of the city. The Buyers' Guide represents reference advertising at its best, and merits the attention of all buyers and sellers seeking sources of supply or markets for goods. In a large commercial and industrial center like Charlotte, the necessity of having this kind of information up-to-date and always immediately available, is obvious. The City Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller, and plays an important role in the daily activities of the commercial, industrial and professional world.

II. THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents, business and professional concerns is the second major department, printed on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of Charlotte, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation in the city.

III. THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE is the third major department, printed on green paper. In this section the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of owner-occupied homes, the listing of telephone numbers, new householder symbols and Zip Codes.

IV. THE NUMERICAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY is the fourth major department, printed on blue paper.

Municipal Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the city, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the City Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of Charlotte.

The Charlotte Out-of-Town City Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the Charlotte City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in the offices of the Charlotte Chamber Of Commerce, for free reference by the general public. This is one of more than 800 Directory Libraries published throughout the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico through the courtesy of your publisher.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional people who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

HILL DIRECTORY COMPANY,
Publishers.

Out of Sight--Out of Mind

☆ Out of Business ☆

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.

Geography

Charlotte, the largest city in the Carolinas, is located in gently rolling country on North Carolina's Piedmont Plateau, between the Blue Ridge Mountains to the west and the Coastal Plain to the east, 18 miles inland from the pleasant beaches of the Atlandic Ocean. Northeast, New York City is 550 miles away, and Miami is 650 miles to the southeast.

Close to the South Carolina border, the city covers 72 square miles of Mecklenburg County's 542 square miles, with an elevation of 765 feet. The 12-county urban region around Charlotte, called Metrolina, is one of the South's major industrial regions and the nation's leading area in textile production. Charlotte serves as the financial, distribution and transportation center of Metrolina.

Climate

Charlotte enjoys a moderate climate, having relatively comfortable weather nearly 70°/o of the year. Hot weather, defined as that making at least 50°/o of the community's inhabitants uncomfortable, prevails for only about 8°/o of the year.

Extremely cold weather is rare, due, in part, to the sheltering effect of the mountains to the west. January is the coldest month, with an average temperature of 42° F. Snow is infrequent, occurring usually once in each month from December through March. Accumulation is hardly ever appreciable, and mild winters make possible year-round construction activity. Seldom is the transportation of goods or people delayed by inclement weather.

Summers are warm, but not unbearably so. Temperature for July averages 79° F, with an average maximum of 88° F and an average minimum of 69° F. The average frost-free season extends from mid-March to mid-November, more than 250 days. Average annual precipitation is 43 inches.

History

Mecklenburg was first settled by Scots, Germans, Huguenots, Pennsylvania Scotch-Irish, Swiss from South Carolina and English from Virginia. In 1762 Mecklenburg County was established by North Carolina's provincial assembly and in 1768 Charlotte was incorporated on a 360-acre tract. The town was named after Queen Charlotte, wife of England's King George III and the county after the German principality, home of the Queen.

Queen Charlotte's portrait hangs in the Mint Museum of Art

With no strong attachment to England, and inflamed by reports of the British firing on Lexington, citizens of the county chose delegates for a meeting at Charlotte's Court House on May 20, 1775. The Mecklenburg County Declaration of Independence, drafted and adopted by the delegates at that meeting, is believed to antedate the American Declaration by 14 months.

Charlott's nickname (Hornet's Nest) comes from a reference made by Cornwallis in 1780 as a result of rebellious harassment while the British were occupying the town.

After the war gold was discovered in 1799 near Concord in Cabarrus County, which adjoins Mecklenburg. As a result, Charlotte became the mining capital of the United States and became the site for the first branch of the United States Mint, established in 1836. Five million dollars were coined at the Mint between 1837 and 1861. The Civil War saw the close of the mint as a coinage producer.

Between 1861 and 1865 Charlotte invested a total Confederate force of 2,713, 25°/o of the male citizens available. Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy, was addressing a crowd on South Tryon Street on April 18, 1865, when he learned of the news of the Lincoln assassination. Two days later Davis and members of his cabinet held one of their last cabinet meetings of the Confederate States in Charlotte.

It was as late as 1872 when the last Federal troops of Reconstruction left. 1909 brought the first skyscraper (the Independence Building on Tryon Street), and in 1927 the Charlotte branch of the Federal Reserve Bank was opened. In 1936 the United States Mint reopened as an art museum, the American Legion Memorial Stadium was completed, and the Municipal airport opened. Two years later buses replaced electric street cars. During the war and post-war years the population doubled, from 100,899 in 1940 to 201,564 in 1960. In 1968 Charlotte celebrated its Bi-Centennial and won the All-American City designation.

Taxes

Real Estate property is assessed at approximately 60°/o of the 1971 fair market value. The rate per $100 valuation for 1972-73 was $3.25 inside the city and $1.56 in the county but outside the city limits. Sales tax is 4°/o in Mecklenburg County, which includes a 3°/o state-wide sales tax.

Government

The city provides the basic urban services of water and sewer, fire protection, police, traffic control and recreation. The Mecklenburg County government provides for a system of courts, administers public health and welfare programs and maintains a separate police force. The city and county have established a consolidated system of public education, and they jointly share the responsibility of city planning.

A view from Charlotte's Governmental Plaza

The government of the City of Charlotte, and the general management and control of all its affairs, are vested in a city council of seven members and a mayor elected on a non-partisan basis. A city manager, appointed by the council, serves as administrative head of the city, carrying out the laws enacted by the city council and supervising the operations of the city's 20 departments. He prepares and submits a tentative annual budget and keeps the council advised of the city's financial condition and needs.

The government of Mecklenburg County, and the general management and control of all its affairs, are administered under the county management plan by a board of five commissioners elected at large for two-year terms. The Board fixes the tax rate, reviews the annual budget and assumes responsibility for providing sufficient funds for the necessary expenses of government, including capital outlay and debt retirement. The county manager, appointed by the board sees that all orders, resolutions, and regulations of the board are faithfully executed.

Population

The population of Charlotte has increased more than five times since 1920, from 46,338 to 241,178 in 1970. In the last ten years, 1962 to 1972, the city's population climbed by 19%. During the same ten-year period, Mecklenburg's increase was 30%. Estimates placed the July 1, 1972 population of Charlotte at 251,500 and the county at 374,000.

The 12-county Metrolina area has, today, slightly more than 1,200,000 persons. Mecklenburg County thus accounts for almost one-third of Metrolina's total population.

Economy

Metropolitan Charlotte is one of the nation's major distribution centers, with close to 1,400 wholesale firms, which do an annual business of more than $4.5 billion. The city ranks 17th in the United States as a regional sales center for national firms.

The primary reason for Charlotte's high standing in wholesaling is the Carolina's textile industry. Charlotte is one of the nation's most important marketing centers for synthetic fibers, dyes, and other textile chemicals. Because synthetic fibers are technically classified as chemicals, Charlotte ranks fourth in the country in wholesale sales of industrial chemicals, behind only New York, Chicago and Philadelphia.

Two North Carolina counties adjacent to Mecklenburg, Gaston and Cabarrus, are the two largest textile employment centers in the nation. The 12 Metrolina counties have a total of 127,106 textile employees. Diversification in textiles has been a significant development in recent years, with plants in the area engaging in weaving, spinning, knitting, textile printing and finishing, and production of hosiery along with a large number of other textile products. As an example of this diversification, there are a number of new giant synthetic fibers plants.

The knitting machine symbolizes Charlotte's strategic location as the center of the nation's textile industry.

Charlotte has been developing rapidly over the last five years as an important center for location of regional headquarters of major national companies. A large number of corporations have selected the city as a desirable site for sales offices, division headquarters, research and development facilities, and other administrative units. At the present time, 115 companies, having a net worth each of $1 million or more, are home-officed in Mecklenburg County.

Bank resources represented in Mecklenburg County total more than $6.5 billion. Five of the nation's 200 largest banks operate in Charlotte. The city is also an important retailing center with its stores having an annual total sales volume in the billions of dollars. Over the past ten years retail sales have increased 139%.

Although distribution and finance remain the primary areas of activity and growth, the region also has a noteworthy amount of manufacturing. There are, at present, 652 manufacturing firms in the county employing a total of 37,620 persons; their total annual payroll is in excess of $249 million. Textiles, food products, printing and publishing, machinery, and chemicals have been important products over the years. Recent industrial newcomers produce nuclear turbines, truck tires, truck trailers, and automobile clocks. Industrial parks have been a major factor in the development of Charlotte. There are now 25 such parks ranging up to 2,200 acres in size. Total employment in Mecklenburg County exceeds 208,000 persons.

Charlotte is a major transportation center and has 108 trucking firms operating from the city. There are more than 5,000 Charlotte-based tractor trailers. Over 350 trains pass through Charlotte each week, and five commercial airlines serve the area with approximately 180 flights to and from Charlotte daily. A customs station at Douglas Municipal Airport marks the city as a port of entry and export. The number of air passengers was over one million in 1972, an increase of 128% since 1962.

Education

In 1972-73 about 80,000 pupils were enrolled in 94 elementary, junior high schools and 10 high schools. There are also 12 state-approved parochial schools and a number of private schools. Mecklenburg's public schools are among the finest in the Southeast because of a uniformly good school administration, quality in instruction and excellent physical facilities.

Institutions of higher learning in the city include Central Piedmont Community College, Queens College for Women, Johnson C. Smith University, a co-educational school, and the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Davidson College for men is located in northern Mecklenburg County at Davidson. Sacred Heart College for women and Belmont Abbey College are in nearby Belmont.

Libraries

The public library system of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County is both the largest in the state and the most extensive in its holdings of books and other materials. The main library is located downtown at 310 North Tryon Street, with 14 branches scattered throughout the city and county. The main library has a large local history and genealogy room and is a depository for United States Government publications. Through the interlibrary loan program, the library can borrow books for its patrons from other libraries in North Carolina and throughout the United States.

Five college libraries in Mecklenburg County allow controlled and limited borrowing by the public. Also, there are a number of special private libraries in the city and county such as the Medical Library and the Law Library.

Utilities

The vast Duke Power system, headquartered in Charlotte, has 15 large hydro-electric plants, 7 major steam plants and a number of smaller installations supplying electric power throughout the Piedmont Carolinas. Total rated installed capacity is 7,245,189 kilowatts. Duke Power's forward-looking policies have played a vital part in the industrialization of the Piedmont. The company has under construction 7,855,300 kilowatts of additional capacity, including conventional and pumped storage hydro-electric development, coal-burning steam station, and nuclear fuel steam stations.

Charlotte is headquarters for three major regional utilities

Southern Bell Telephone Company has approximately 257,000 telephones in Charlotte and is rapidly expanding facilities to meet Charlotte's continued rapid growth. Southern Bell's state headquarters is located in Charlotte.

Piedmont Natural Gas Company, the Carolinas' largest natural gas utility, also uses Charlotte as a base of operations.

Churches

While the area has been traditionally Protestant since the 18th Century, churches of many faiths dot the Charlotte-Mecklenburg landscape. There are about 500 congregations in the city and county giving evidence of both the variety and depth of spiritual life in the community.

Medical Facilities

Charlotte is one of the Southeast's outstanding medical centers. The city has three large general hospitals, two specialty hospitals and one hospital for the chronically ill. Two of the colleges in the city offer degree programs in nursing and send their students to local hospitals for clinical training. Two hospitals have their own diploma nursing programs. One hospital is a fully accredited teaching hospital with graduate medical instruction for physicians in eight special fields of medicine.

The Medical Society of Mecklenburg County operates the largest privately owned medical library in the South. The city and county also have progressive treatment centers for the mentally retarded, the mentally ill, and for alcoholics. Charlotte is the chief center for medical services and care for the area radiating outward from the city 75 miles in every direction.

Arts & Entertainment

Charlotte is a focal point for cultural activities and entertainment in the Carolinas. The United Arts Council, civic associations, and the colleges generate considerable enthusiasm for the performing and creative arts. Charlotte's Mint Museum of Art is one of the largest museum art centers in North Carolina, with a permanent collection of over 3,000 pieces including painting, sculpture and the decorative arts.

A Medieval Theatre troop highlights an outdoor art festival on the elevated walkway of Charlotte's Governmental Plaza

The Charlotte Nature Museum hosts countless numbers of children every year, with one of its main attractions being the Planetarium. The museum houses the closest thing to a zoo in the area, with many small animals and birds. A recently successful exhibit was a representation of Charlotte-Mecklenburg's history, entitled "Century III."

The Charlotte Symphony Orchestra presents a series of concerts featuring internationally renowned guest artists each year. The Charlotte Oratorio Society and the Charlotte Opera Association provide a number of excellent musical productions during the year. A schedule of civic music concerts and programs by the Charlotte Choral Society also highlight the musical offering.

The theatre is alive and vital in Charlotte due to the Mint Museum Drama Guild and the Little Theatre. A week-long arts festival is held outdoors each year during the Fall in Freedom Park where hundreds of thousands of people are drawn to enjoy the work of local artists, musicians, sculptors and craftsmen.

Hockey is a favorite spectator sport in Charlotte

There are 28 cinemas in Charlotte and its suburban neighborhoods. The county has three dinner theatres and a number of excellent restaurants, some offering authentic foreign cuisine. For information regarding the many clubs in Charlotte, contact the Chamber of Commerce.

Recreation and Sports

Charlotte-Mecklenburg has two fresh water lakes, Lake Norman and Lake Wylie; and the Catawba River for water-skiing, sailing, boating, swimming and fishing. To the East, Charlotteans can reach, in half a day's driving time, a 200 mile string of Atlantic Ocean beach resorts. To the West, area residents, after only a two-hour drive, can discover all the breathtaking beauty of the Blue Ridge Mountains, including Mt. Mitchell, the highest peak east of the Mississippi. Mountain camping, sightseeing, and skiing are popular in the winter months.

Charlotte has 75 parks and playgrounds, 3 public swimming pools, 8 public golf courses, 10 community centers with a varied recreational program for all ages, 5 bowling lanes and a number of facilities for tennis. There are 9 country clubs in the city and county.

Charlotte has much to offer the spectator sports enthusiast. The Carolina Cougars, an ABA basketball team, plays half its home schedule at the Charlotte Coliseum this year. The 1973 NCAA Eastern Regional basketball tournament was held at the Coliseum in March.

Hockey is popular here. The Charlotte Checkers won the Eastern Hockey League championship the last two years.

The World 600, longest and richest stock car racing event in the United States, draws nearly 80,000 fans to the Charlotte Motor Speedway late in May each year, and is followed in the fall by NASCAR's National 500.

The Kemper Open, a $200,000 golf tournament in the PGA tour, has been played in Charlotte since 1969. The two final rounds of the 1972 Kemper were carried nationally on television. The North Carolina National Bank Tennis Classic, featuring top professionals of the World Championship of Tennis, is an April event.

The annual Shrine Bowl Football Game, pitting the outstanding high school seniors from North Carolina against their South Carolina counterparts, draws a capacity crowd of 28,000 to Charlotte's Memorial Stadium every December.

Newspapers & Broadcasting Stations

Charlotte has two widely circulated daily newspapers: The Charlotte Observer (published mornings, circulation 175,000—Sunday 212,000); and The Charlotte News (published evenings except Sunday, circulation in excess of 70,000). Both are owned by the Knight Publishing Company. There are 12 radio stations broadcasting programs of most major networks, and five television stations, two VHF and three UHF, one of which is an educational station. All five feature major network programming in black and white and color.

PEOPLE KEEP PUTTING US DOWN.

Putting us down as their bank, that is.

Because Branch Banking & Trust Company offers everything people want from a full-service bank. From loans, checking and savings accounts to Master Charge, the all-purpose credit card.

You'll see why people have been putting Branch down longer than any other bank in North Carolina. And the nice thing about it is, we couldn't be more pleased.

WHY A BUYERS' GUIDE?

IT IS CUSTOMARY TO INCLUDE A BUYERS' GUIDE IN THE CITY DIRECTORY BECAUSE:

It gives business firms the opportunity to elaborate upon a description of their products and services impossible in the limited space of regular Alphabetical and Classified listings.

★ The Buyers' Guide is a necessary supplement to the regular listings; it is good City Directory information . . . EXTENDED ★

CASHIERS! TELLERS! CLERKS!

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory?

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

CAUTION . . . .

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.

The insurance program you won't outgrow the way you outgrow most things.

There's no telling where you'll go, how large a family you'll have, considering all the growing opportunities as well as complexities that your future will have. It's something you should discuss with your American National agent. Because, however far you go and however large or small a family you have, he has insurance protection that will keep you well covered, and at relatively low cost. You'll find that his planning will accommodate all the complexities, from education to career, from marriage and family to retirement. Get the details from

Nobody Knows Charlotte Like Headen & Company

We take our commitment to Charlotteans seriously. Whether it is a single family dwelling, an apartment complex, a condominium, or an investment program for the future, Headen & Company has something designed for you.

Although we are the fastest growing company of its kind in Charlotte, we take the time to find out what you want. For example, we're developing Stonington, Woodhaven and Woodmere which were planned just for Charlotte living. (Headen has three more on the drawing boards for this year.)

Around town you can notice the fifteen apartment complexes that suit every taste. Two more are presently under construction.

We've grown up with Charlotte. From our little realty company seven years ago to our company of today which builds and plans the Charlotte of tomorrow.

Maybe we've grown because nobody knows Charlotte like Headen & Company.

CASHIERS! TELLERS! CLERKS!

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory?

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

★

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory?

★

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

A STATEMENT OF ADVERTISING PRINCIPLES

1. Good Advertising ~ aims to inform the consumer and help him to buy more intelligently.

2. Good Advertising ~ tells the truth, avoiding misstatement of facts as well as possible deception through implication or omission. It makes no claims which cannot be met in full and without further qualification. It uses only testimonials of competent witnesses.

3. Good Advertising ~ conforms to the generally accepted standards of good taste. It seeks public acceptance on the basis of the merits of the product or service advertised rather than by the disparagement of competing goods. It tries to avoid practices that are offensive or annoying.

4. Good Advertising ~ recognizes both its economic responsibility to help reduce distribution costs and its social responsibility in serving the public interest.

Advertising Federation of America

(Your Directory publishers fully subscribe to the principles set forth in this statement)
